

<sup>1</sup> Twenty-eight U.S.C. § 1914(a) requires a civil filing fee of $350. In addition, § 1914(b) requires the clerk to “collect from the parties such additional fees . . . as are prescribed by the 20, 2018.<sup>2</sup> The Clerk mailed Jenkins a copy of the Court's order and a non-prisoner in forma pauperis affidavit. The Court's order specifically cautioned Jenkins that his failure to comply with the Court's instructions in a timely manner would result in the dismissal of this action without further notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for failure to prosecute.

Jenkins has not complied with the Court's January 19, 2018, order by the deadline set by the Court. Jenkins has not submitted a non-prisoner in forma pauperis affidavit or the $400 filing fee. Therefore, Jenkins's complaint is DISMISSED without prejudice.

The Clerk is directed to prepare a judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Judicial Conference of the United States.” The Judicial Conference has prescribed an additional administrative fee of $50 for filing any civil case, except for cases seeking habeas corpus and cases in which the plaintiff is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Therefore, if Plaintiff submits a non-prisoner affidavit and the Court finds that he still qualifies for pauper status, he will not be responsible for the additional $50 fee.

<sup>2</sup> Day 30 actually fell on Sunday, February 18, 2018, and Monday, February 19 was a day on which the Clerk's Office was closed in observance of the President's Day holiday.
